Delta Institute of Technology - Student Services Guide

1. Library

The central library is open Sunday to Thursday from 8:00 to 20:00 and on Saturday from 9:00 to 15:00. The library is closed on Friday. Undergraduate students may borrow up to 5 books for 14 days and may renew each loan twice. The late return fine is 5 EGP per book per day.

2. Scholarships and Financial Aid

Excellence Scholarship: covers 50 percent of tuition for the top 5 percent of each cohort with a CGPA of at least 3.8. Sports Scholarship: covers 25 percent of tuition for students who represent the institute in national competitions.

Financial Aid: students with documented financial hardship may apply to the Financial Aid Committee through the Student Affairs office before the end of the second week of the semester. Scholarships do not cover lab fees or registration fees.

3. Tuition Payment

Tuition can be paid in 3 installments: 50 percent at registration, 25 percent in week 4 and 25 percent in week 8. Students who miss an installment deadline cannot access the learning platform Delta Learn until the payment is completed.

4. IT Services

Every student receives an institute email account and access to the Delta Learn learning management system. The IT Helpdesk is located in Building B, room 12, and is open Sunday to Thursday from 8:00 to 16:00. Contact: helpdesk@delta-institute.example or extension 1100. The campus Wi-Fi network is called Delta-Campus. Passwords can be reset at the helpdesk with a student ID.

5. Career Center and Internships

The Career Center organizes the mandatory summer internship of 160 training hours. Students become eligible for the internship after completing 60 credit hours. A career fair is held every March. The Career Center is in Building A, room 210.

6. Health, Transport and Student Affairs

The university clinic is free for all students and is open Sunday to Thursday from 9:00 to 15:00. University buses run from the main city bus station to the campus every 30 minutes between 7:00 and 18:00.

The Student Affairs office is in Building A, room 105, extension 1050, and is open Sunday to Thursday from 9:00 to 14:00.
